

Apple Varieties

Each crop year varies in yield and timing based on Mother Nature!

\*Denotes varieties available for U-Pick*

Variety	Harvest Time	Flavor/Texture	Eating	Baking	Sauce	Characteristics
Bazooka Gold	Late September	Sweet-Tart Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Exclusively sold at Milburns, early Mutsu apple
Braeburn	Late October	Sweet-Tart Hard	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Very close to Stayman Winesap and Jonathan
Cameo	Mid October	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Good	Good	Hint of tangy taste, closely related to Red Delicious
Cortland	Mid September	Sweet-Tart Crisp	Good	Great for pies (fair for other baked)	Excellent	Very juicy, Next best thing to McIntosh
Crimson Crisp	Mid-Late September	Sweet-Tart Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Firm, white flesh with tart, lightly spicy flavor
Empire MacIntosh	Mid September	Sweet-Tart Crisp	Excellent	Excellent for pies (fair for other baked goods)	Excellent	All-purpose, parent apple of Red Delicious and McIntosh
EverCrisp	Early October	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Parent varieties: Honeycrisp and Fuji
Fuji	Mid-Late October	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Very sweet and juicy
Gala	Mid August	Sweet Soft	Excellent	Not Recommended	Good	Perfect for snacking on

Ginger Gold	Mid August	Sweet-Tangy Crisp	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Multi-purpose apple, does not discolor
Golden Delicious	Mid September	Sweet Crisp, Soft	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Favorite for applesauce and apple butter
Granny Smith	Late October	Tart Crisp	Good	Excellent	Good	Perfect crisp apple for cooking
Honeycrisp	Early September	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Perfect multi-purpose apple, most popular
Jonagold	Mid September	Sweet w/ hint of Tart Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Cross of Jonathan and Golden Delicious
Jonathan	Mid-Late September	Tart Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Perfect substitute for Stayman Winesap
Lodi (Very Limited)	Early-Mid July	Tart Crisp	Not Recommended	Not Recommended	Excellent	Great for apple sauce for beginning of summer season
McIntosh	Mid September	Semi Sweet-Tart Softer	Excellent	Great for pies (fair for other baked goods)	Excellent	Great for cider and juice
Mutsu	Mid October	Sweet-Tart Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Multi-purpose, sweeter flavor when more yellow
Orange Honey	Mid September	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Exclusively sold at Milburns, very similar to Honeycrisp
Paula Red	Mid August	Sweet-Tart Crisp	Good	Good for pies	Excellent	Very attractive looking apple, great for desserts

Pink Lady	Early November	Sweet-Tart Firm, Crisp	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Great dessert apple
Red Delicious	Mid September	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Not Recommended	Not Recommended	Classic snacking apple
Red Rome	Mid October	Mild-Bland Crisp	Fair	Excellent	Good	Unique flavor, used mainly for baking
Royal Gala	Early September	Sweet Soft Crisp	Excellent	Not Recommended	Fair	Crunchy, becomes softer at the end of the season
Sansa	Mid August	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Not Recommended	Fair	Early Gala variety, Royal Gala taste
September Fuji	Mid September	Sweet Crisp	Excellent	Good	Good	Offspring of Fuji, same qualities but 4 weeks later
Smokehouse (Very Limited)	Mid October	Sweet-Malty Crisp	Good	Good	Excellent	Old Fashioned classic apple, good for cider
Stayman Winesap	Mid October	Tart Crisp, Coarse	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Classic apple, unique to the tri-state area
Summer Rambo	Early-Mid August	Tart Crisp	Not Recommended	Great for pies (fair for other baked goods)	Excellent	Multi-purpose Old-time favorite
Sweet Zoe	Late October	Sweet-Tangy Crisp	Good	Good	Good	Exclusively grown and sold at Milburns